JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 28 June 1961

25X1 1. [] Jim Hyde, Bureau of the Budget, called to say that Myer Feldman, on the White House staff, had sent to him our proposed report to the Foreign Relations Committee on S. J. Res. 77, Senator McCarthy's proposal for a Joint Committee. Mr. Hyde said he thought our report was "just right" and was going to so advise []. However, he suggested that we take no formal action until we receive word from the White House. He added that the Bureau was going to suggest to USIA that some changes be made in the last paragraph of its proposed report.

[] I have been in touch with Mr. Hogland, and Mr. McAfee, of the State Department, on this and they have, in turn, been in touch with Mr. Hyde. We propose to send State and Defense copies of our report for their guidance when White House approval is given.

25X1 3. [] [] WH Division, called to say that William McHale, in the office of Senator George A. Smathers, had asked [] if he would have someone come up to talk with him about a Cuban situation. I advised [] to have his man see McHale and keep me advised.
